CIRQUE DU SOLEIL HELPS DALLAS' AT-RISK-YOUTH

Promise House and Cirque du Soleil Announced Event Partnership for 2007

Dallas, TX (Nov. 21, 2006)— On the rooftop Sky Club at The Mayfair, Promise House Cirque du Soleil planning committee and guests toasted to the 500 tickets that Cirque du Soleil has donated to Promise House to sell. Cirque du Soleil has selected Promise House as their Dallas beneficiary and has dedicated one night out of their 2007 Corteo tour in Dallas as Promise House 'Benefit Night.' All ticket sales go to helping runaway, homeless and at-risk youth.

On Thursday, October 26, 2006 from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m., Dallas' leading business, political and philanthropy figures attended Une Nuit de Promesse or 'A Night of Promise' in French, to celebrate the launch of Promise House ticket sales. Guests posed with Cirque-dressed staff, won Corteo ornaments and programs and dined on sushi and springrolls by Steel Restaurant and Lounge. This year's 'Benefit Night' is on Friday, February 23, 2007 at 8 p.m. Under the Grand Chapiteau tent at Dallas Fair Park. Tickets can be purchased online at www.promisehouse.com or by calling 214-941-8578, extension 285. The tickets cost $125 ($50 tax deductible).

About Promise House

Promise House is a non-profit agency whose mission is to stabilize and offer hope to youth and families in crisis. From that mission, the agency has evolved to offer comprehensive residential and non-residential services to runaway, homeless and at-risk youth—and at no cost. Promise House has become a leader in the non-profit community and a strong advocate for youth in crisis. Promise House served more than 8,000 youth and their family members last year and has served more than 46,000 people since its doors first opened in 1984.
